From Moscow to Western Europe in one day!

Such are the prospects and possibilities which the new long distance service of the Aerotransport — Swedish Air Lines — offers to you. Between the 1st July and 2nd October the aircraft of the Aerotranport's joint service with the Russian State Air Line, Aeroflot, will cover the distance between Moscow—Riga—Stockholm in 7 hours, the departure from Moscow taking place at 7 a. m. Direct connection is made in Stockholm after one hour's luncheon interval with the Aerotransport and KLM Lines to London and Paris (Line 511), with arrival at the respective destinations at 9.55 and 10.35 p. m. on the same day. For those who wish to stay overnight in Stockholm one of the Aerotransport's 'planes leaves Stockholm at 9.30 a. m., with arrival in London at 4.55 p. m. and Paris at 5 p. m. (Line 240). The journey in the opposite directions starts from Paris at 9 a. m. and from London at 9.30 a. m., with arrival in Stockholm at 4.20 p. m. (Line 240), the voyage being continued next morning at 9 a. m., with arrival in the Soviet capital at 6 p. m. From Moscow there are first class air connections to Baku and Teheran, the latter place being reached in five days from London.

The Aerotransport and KLM are flying on the line Stockholm—London with new, hypermodern Douglas DC—3 'planes with accommodation for 21 passengers. On the line Stockholm—Moscow the Aerotransport is using modern Junkers Ju 52 'planes with accommodation for 12 passengers, and the Aeroflot is using speedy and comfortable 'planes of type ANT—35, with a cruising speed of 200 miles an hour, carrying a crew of two and with accommodation for 10 passengers. The Swedish pilots are famous for their skill, and the Soviet Russian pilots, who are in charge on the Moscow—Stockholm Line have nearly all previously flown over 1 million kilometers.

To businessmen these rapid services offer fresh and undreamed possibilities for opening up close business relations, and tourist are enabled, without any waste of time, to reach quickly and comfortably the most interesting tourist country in the world, the great republic in the East.

Why not let a visit to the Soviet Union become the most interesting experience in your life? But map out your trip in good time! The passport visa takes 14 days (for tourists from USA 8 days). Further information can be obtained from your own tourist agency or the nearest Intourist Office.
