This Time-Table is in operation on

WEEK-DAYS ONLY.

No Sunday Services being scheduled.

Four Engined Air Liners operate the London—Dublin Section.

TICKET REGULATIONS.

1. RESERVATIONS. Seats should be booked in advance, either through the Company's Offices, as published in this time-table or through the Company's Agents. The cost of any telegams or trunk telephone calls in connection with reservations will be charged to the passenger. Applications from intending passengers by telegram are only effected on receipt of a telegraphic remittance, or the remittance by the return of post In noinstance can accommodation be held in reply to a telegram or to a telephone message to the exclusion of other passengers who definitely wish to travel and are prepared to take up their tickets.

Provisional reservations will be made only upon the payment of a deposit of 25% of the full fare. Such reservations automatically lapse unless the full fare is paid two clear days before departure. The 25% deposit will be transferred to any other service or will be refunded (less any cable or telegraphic expenses) if the passenger be unable to travel, or if accommodation be not available on the service on which a seat is desired.

2. CANCELLATIONS. In the event of a passenger wishing to cancel, or to transfer a reservation and giving less than 24 hours' notice of his intention, the full fare may be forfeited or a transfer fee to be charged.

3. RETURN TICKETS. A return ticket does not give the holder any preferential claim to accommodation. Reservations for a return journey must be effected in the same way as for a single journey.

(A). REFUNDS. If no accommodation has been reserved, and should the passenger be unable to use the return half of a ticket, then the difference between the single and the return fares will be refunded.

(B). A passenger who does not pay the return fare at the time of buying a ticket for the outward journey, cannot afterwards be put upon the same footing as the holder of a return ticket.

(C). Return tickets are available for use on the return journey any day within the period of their validity.

4. CHILDREN. Children under three years of age and accompanied by an adult will be charged 10% (ten per cent.) of the fare. Those between three and seven years of age are carried at half the standard fare. The free baggage allowance of 30-lbs. is available for children over three years, but there is no free allowance for children if under that age.

5. DEPARTURE. Passengers must be at the Airport sufficiently in advance of the advertised time of departure for baggage and ticket formalities to be completed before that time. Passengers are strongly recommended to be at the Airport at least fifteen minutes before departure time, as under no circumstances can air liners be held for passengers who do not arrive in time. Passengers arriving late and who miss a machine are liable to forfeit the whole of the fare. Normally the loading of the air liner is completed five minutes before the stated time of departure. No guarantee can be given any Passenger arriving at the Airport within the stated five minutes will be carried on the service.

BAGGAGE INFORMATION.

6. 33-lbs. of Baggage are carried free of charge for each passenger when travelling on the services enumerated in this time-table. A concession is made for parties travelling together, but every lb. in excess of this weight is charged for at the rates published in the time-table, and can be sent in advance. Passengers wishing to carry above 30-lbs. free allowance must give ample notice to this effect, so that if possible accommodation can be reserved on the machine in which they are travelling, otherwise baggage may have to be left to go over on the first available machine afterwards.

7. THE CARRIAGE OF LIVESTOCK. Passengers can only carry with them any dog, cat, bird or any other animal after prior arrangements have been made with the Company, and in any case only after consideration has been given to other passengers. All animals will be charged for at the excess baggage rate.
