TREK AIRWAYS is South Africa's premier independent airline. Now in its tenth successful year of operation TREK offers a twice weekly service from Luxembourg, Athens or Malta and Cairo to Johannesburg and return.

(*)As a special service to passengers commencing their journeys in the United Kingdom, TREK has arranged to carry them between London Airport (Gatwick) and Luxembourg on scheduled airlines at a small additional charge

DEFERRED PAYMENT: An attractive scheme is in force. Details on request.

DEPOSIT: To secure a reservation a deposit of £5 per seat is required. This is taken into account as part payment of the fare. In the event of cancellation it is not refundable (except in some cases of extreme illness when the claim is supported by a Doctor's certificate). However, it is held to the credit of a passenger who cancels his reservation for 12 months from the date it was paid to TREK. If a new reservation is made within this period the original deposit will serve to secure the new reservation.

CANCELLATION FEES: The company reserves the right to make the following charges:—

- (a) Cancellation within 96 hours of departure : 25 per cent of one way fare.
- (b) Refused permission to fly due to faulty documentation or failure to check in at airport ; 50 per cent of one way fare.

VALIDITY OF TICKETS: Return tickets are valid for 12 months from the date of commencement of the outward journey.

PASSPORT AND HEALTH REQUIREMENTS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT: See the current descriptive TREK brochure.
