NOW— 14 Air Ferry Routes to Europe

FLY WITH YOUR CAR

This year choose the fast, comfortable way to the Continent. Silver City and Channel Air Bridge, now united, provide a choice of 14 routes. And a wonderful personal service that makes it easy and comfortable . . . no queues, no crowds.

A FASTER ROUTE FOR EVERY JOURNEY

Wherever you are going British United Air Ferries will speed your journey. Look at the map for your ideal route . . . three departure points—Southend, Lydd, Hurn—whichever suits your plan. Ten arrival points, in Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland and the Channel Islands. Then you are on your way, fresh and relaxed . . . ready to enjoy your motoring holiday to the full.

YOUR OWN CAR IS BEST

For comfort, freedom and convenience there's nothing to beat your own car. Your car—the car you know, the car you enjoy driving. No luggage problems, enjoy the economy and pleasure of your own car to complete your holiday enjoyment.

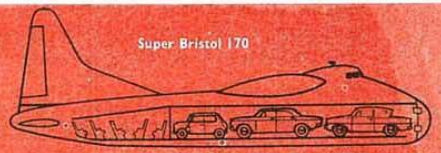
YOU SAVE SO MUCH TIME

Drive from London to Switzerland in a morning . . . from the North or the Midlands to Brittany or the Black Forest in a day. Whether you choose to save days flying the long range ferries, or valuable hours on the shorter routes, British United Air Ferries provide the fastest, most comfortable start to your holiday.

The Susten Pass - Switzerland

Le Cinque Terre, Monterosso - Italy

Caceres - Spain



1. On the short routes, the Bristol carries 3 cars, 16 passengers.

2. On the long routes, the Carvair carries 5 cars, 22 passengers.

ON ALL ROUTES THE RATE FOR TRI-CARS AND COMBINATIONS IS THAT FOR AN 11′ 0″ CAR

 fractions of an inch are discounted.*

The rates quoted for the carriage of trailers permit one boat or one vehicle to be carried on the trailer without extra charge. Additional units carried on the trailer will, however, be charged for carriage at the applicable rate.

Cargo carried in any vehicle, other than personal baggage, will be charged at the standard cargo rate applicable for the route in question.

PETROL

Tanks should not be more than half full.

ENGINE AND CHASSIS NUMBERS

Owners should be able to indicate where these numbers are located, as Customs usually check them against vehicle documents.

BAGGAGE

Passengers with cars may take any amount of personal baggage in the boot or on the roof racks. The latter must be properly secured. and baggage loaded on them must not be more than 6′ 6″ above ground level. It will not be necessary for baggage to be removed from cars unless we are requested to do so by H.M. Customs.

INSURANCE

All vehicles are carried at Company's risk.

TAXES

All vehicle fares include airport taxes. At certain airports passenger taxes are payable and these are shown on page 4.

Travel Documents

Documentation for 'GB' touring is now simpler—and cheaper—than ever before.
For travel to AUSTRIA, BELGIUM, DENMARK, FRANCE, GERMANY (WEST), HOLLAND, ITALY, LUXEMBOURG, MONACO, NORWAY, PORTUGAL, SPAIN, SWEDEN and SWITZERLAND the only vehicle documents required are:—

1. Vehicle Registration Book.
2. Current British Driving Licence.
3. International Motor Insurance Card (Green Card).
4. British Customs Form 29(c) Sale. (Required by U.K. Customs only.)

SPAIN, however, requires an International Driving Permit.

The A.A. and R.A.C. issue Carnets (in conjunction with their full touring service) only to members, but supply to members and non-members alike, International Driving Permits (10/6) and International Motor Certificates (10/6). Form 29(c) Sale (3d.) may be obtained from the A.A. or R.A.C., most travel agents or direct from British United Air Ferries.
British United Air Ferries make no charge for Customs clearance of vehicles on Form 29(c) Sale provided the above documents are in order.

G. B. EASY PAYMENT PLAN

In conjunction with Travel Credit Limited confidential credit facilities are now available for all our services and full details will be sent on request. Please ask for leaflet TCL3.

LE TOUQUET PARIS PLAGE—(the 'Beach of Paris')—is one of the gayest pleasure and holiday resorts in all France. And it is only 20 minutes by air from England.

First popularised by Edward VII, it is flanked by rolling sand dunes and a pinewood forest that shelters a multitude of brightly coloured contemporary villas.

There are hundreds of small, sparkling shops full of fine merchandise—just like a Paris in miniature. The hotels range from those frequented by millionaires to the smallest and most reasonably-priced pensions.

And for passing motorists, Le Touquet offers the most modern motel in France.

There are miles of glistening sands as fine and as safe for bathing as any in Europe.

But highest among the many attractions of vivacious Le Touquet are its two casinos and its wonderful facilities for sport—golf, tennis, swimming, yachting, riding, horse racing and sand yachting are all available.

And nearly everyone speaks English—if you want them to, of course!
