CHARTER FLIGHTS:

Charter flights are provided in twin engined aircraft to any licensed airport within New Zealand. Quotations are available on request. Remember, we charter anywhere at any time.

REPORTING TIMES:

All passengers are requested to check in at the Airport Traffic Counter at least 15 minutes before the scheduled time of departure. Those passengers who check in less than 10 minutes prior to departure may find their seats re-allocated to non-confirmed passengers. Your assistance will enable James Air to maintain an on time air service.

General Information

RESERVATIONS: CONFIRMATION AND TICKETING

Passengers are requested to re-confirm their reservation prior to travel. Tickets should where possible be uplifted when the reservation is made. Unticketed reservations will be held until 24 hours before day of travel. It is regretted that if the ticket is not purchased by this time James Air will cancel the reservation and resell the seat. the seat.

CANCELLATION OF RESERVATIONS

Thirty-six hours notice of cancellation of a specific reservation should be given to avoid penalty. Tickets will become invalid if not used for flight on date shown thereon. Any refund application must be lodged with a James Air Office within four weeks of the named date of travel, failing which, no refund will be entertained. If a ticket shows no specific flight and date it will become invalid 12 months from date of issue.

BAGGAGE

Free allowance for adults and half fares — 16 kg. Additional baggage may be carried at Excess Baggage Rates when aircraft weight and space permit. In order to obtain the full benefit of the Free Baggage Allowance, families and other passengers travelling as a party on the same aircraft to a common destination may group their baggage for this purpose.

For safety reasons children under the age of 2 may not be allocated a seat, or two children under the age of 4 be nursed by one adult.

Carriage of more than two children under the age of 4, by one adult, is not permitted nor may any child under the age of 6 travel alone.
