GENERAL INFORMATION FOR PASSENGERS

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE & REGULATIONS

The carriage of passengers, baggage and cargo is subject to CAMBRIAN AIRWAYS General Conditions of Carriage and Regulations, which may be seen on request at any office of CAMBRIAN AIRWAYS. The notes below are for general guidance and reference should be made to the appropriate Conditions or Regulations for full details.

RESERVATIONS AND CANCELLATIONS OF DOMESTIC FLIGHTS:—
Seats should be reserved as far in advance as possible through any office of CAMBRIAN AIRWAYS, BEA OR ANY TRAVEL AGENT.

Booking Deposits. When bookings are made two months or more before the date of travel, a non-returnable booking deposit of £1 per seat will be collected. This deposit, which is included as part of the fare, will not be refunded if the reservation is cancelled before the full fare is paid.

Cancellation. If you have to cancel or defer your reservation, please let us know as early as possible and return your ticket. A charge will be made for all reservations cancelled. The amount will be £1 per seat (or full fare, if less than £1), except in cases of cancellation within two days of the intended date of travel when the fee will be £2.

No Show Charge. A charge of £3 (or full fare if less than £3) will be made when a passenger fails to cancel his reservation and does not join the flight on which he is booked.

RESERVATIONS AND CANCELLATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS:—
Seats should be reserved as far in advance as possible through any OFFICE OF CAMBRIAN AIRWAYS, BEA OR ANY TRAVEL AGENT. If you have to cancel or defer your reservation, please let us know as early as possible and return your ticket. We cannot guarantee refund of fare for a reservation cancelled or transferred at short notice. A passenger failing to join the flight on which he is booked will incur a forfeiture of 25 per cent of the single fare (minimum forfeiture £2 or full fare if less than £2).

CHILDREN. One child under two years of age accompanied by an adult and not occupying a separate seat is carried at 10 per cent of the adult fare. Additional children under two years and children of two years and under twelve years of age are carried at half the adult fare.

Unaccompanied Children. Children may travel unaccompanied with the permission of their parent or guardian. In the child's interest, Cambrian requires that he/she be escorted to the airport of departure and met at the airport of arrival and that the name and address of the escort be given at time of reservation.

TICKETS. Your ticket contains important information concerning your journey; please examine it carefully.

STUDENTS. Special reduced fares are available for students over 12 and under 26 years of age attending full-time school, college, university courses or other educational institutes when travelling between place of education and home. Full information obtainable on request.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS. Cambrian or its Agents will gladly provide on request, information regarding Passports or any visa required for your journey, but you must ensure personally that these documents are in order, because the carrier cannot accept responsibility for the consequences of any irregularity. You will have to show your passport during your journey, so please carry it with you; do not pack it.

HEALTH CERTIFICATES. Certain countries require valid certificates of inoculation and/or vaccination. Please enquire well in advance whether any such certificates are required for your journey.

CURRENCY CONTROL. The movement of money into and out of many countries is subject to Government control and you should consult your Travel Agent or Bank about regulations applicable to your journey well before the date of travel.

BAGGAGE. Free Allowance: for each adult or child paying half the adult fare the free allowance is as follows:—
On journeys wholly within the British Isles—33 lb. (15 kg.)
On international journeys—44 lb. (20 kg.)
There is no free allowance for an infant carried at 10 per cent of the adult fare, but infant's food for consumption en route and an infant's carrying basket are carried free of charge.
Personal Items: In addition to the free allowance, the following may be carried free of charge:—
a lady's handbag, an overcoat or wrap, a foot rug, an umbrella or walking stick, a small camera, a pair of binoculars, a fully collapsible invalid wheel chair and a reasonable amount of reading matter for the flight. Brief cases typewriters and large cameras have to be included in the baggage weights under the regulations of the International Air Transport Association
Excess Weight: Baggage in excess of the free allowance will be carried subject to space available at the rates shown in the Timetable.
Unaccompanied Baggage: Unaccompanied baggage may be sent at normal cargo rates.

Prohibited Articles: Government regulations do not permit the carriage on aircraft of a number of articles including inflammable or explosive material, and you are asked not to carry in your baggage articles which are easily ignited, such as cigarette lighter fluid, matches, etc. On Cambrian aircraft smoking is permitted and you may carry a box of matches or a lighter with you for use on the journey.
N.B.—Baggage should contain personal effects only, but you may carry commercial samples, provided you arrange to be at the airport for international flights not later than the time specified by the local Customs; in the United Kingdom this is 40 minutes before aircraft departure time.

CAMERAS. On international journeys cameras must normally be packed in your checked baggage which is not taken into the cabin with you, as the use of cameras in aircraft is subject to restrictions over some countries.

INSURANCE. You can purchase Personal and Baggage insurance at Cambrian offices in the United Kingdom and in most countries abroad. Please ask for details.

DEPARTURES/CHECK-IN TIMES. Passengers must arrive at the Town Terminal or Airport early enough for all formalities to be completed. On your ticket you will find an indication of the check-in time; this is the time by which passengers must have presented themselves and their baggage at the airline desk and have been accepted for the flight. Departures cannot be delayed for passengers who arrive late and Cambrian cannot accept responsibility in such cases.

STOPOVERS. You may break your journey at most places en route without losing the benefit of the through fare, provided you give notice when you make the reservation. Hotel expenses at each stopover are your responsibility.

ROAD TRANSPORT. Road transport between town and airport is normally available and in most countries is charged for separately. Details of the fares, which are payable locally, are as given in this Timetable.

PUNCTUALITY. Every effort is made to ensure punctuality of our services, but Cambrian cannot accept responsibility for the consequences of a delay to, or a cancellation of, any flight and cannot guarantee making connections.

AIRPORT SERVICE CHARGES. Some countries levy an airport service charge, payable locally before departure, on all passengers embarking on international flights. ★
The French embarkation tax for flights to the U.K. is F.Fr.7

In the Republic of Ireland, the charge (except for children under two years of age and passengers in transit) is 7s. 6d. per head for adult passengers embarking on international flights and 5s. 0d. each for children between two and twelve years old.

CARGO. Cargo is accepted for carriage on all Cambrian passenger services.

The information contained in this timetable is based on the latest information available at the time of going to press and is subject to alteration without notice.

★ In the case of the U.K., the charge is 7s. 6d. per head (except children under two years of age and passengers in transit through the U.K.).

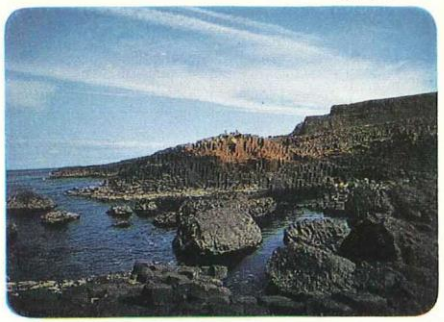
ISLE OF MAN

Think of SUMMER HOLIDAYS!
Warm sand trickling through your toes, sunshine, the smell of the sea, a shady glen—an enchanting prospect to contemplate on a grey winter day.
Think of the ISLE OF MAN!
Where better for your summer holidays than the Isle of Man? Over a hundred miles of coastline with sandy bays and rugged cliffs, high mountains and shady glens, casinos and cottages, gay resorts and quiet backwaters. In short an Island of Contrast to suit all tastes and just made for holidays.
Whether your holiday interests lie in active pursuits like sailing or pony trekking or in the more relaxing comforts of first-class theatres, ballrooms or cinemas, the Isle of Man will more than satisfy your needs.
Fly to the Isle of Man in a Viscount aircraft of Cambrian Airways. Less than an hour from the North—or only 90 minutes from London!
To learn more about this wonderful Holiday Island consult your travel agent or write to K. M. BOND, I.O.M. TOURIST BOARD, 13 VICTORIA STREET, DOUGLAS, ISLE OF MAN, for a copy of the 112-page Isle of Man Holiday book which tells you all about Isle of Man Holidays—the best of holidays.



NORTHERN IRELAND

Arriving by air you glimpse the small green fields and white-washed cottages, loughs and islands and the outline of those friendly Mourne Mountains. At once it is a different land. Accents are new, place names are poetic, roads are uncluttered, and the landscape is the essence of variety and freshness. Northern Ireland has a rugged coastline of 250 miles, strung with gay seaside resorts and small fishing villages incorporating long stretches of sandy beaches, the grandeur of the Antrim Coast Road and the Giant's Causeway. The greater space and slower pace spells relaxation. There are over 60 golf courses, miles of free fishing rivers and numerous loughs and mountains to discover whether by road, foot or horseback, as well as tennis, bowls, yachting and aquatics for the energetic. A rich history and folklore adds colour to the local scene, and each of Northern Ireland's six counties has a distinctive flavour and appeal.
Co. Fermanagh, the lakeland of Ulster in the west, contrasts with the heather-clad regions of Co. Tyrone and the apple orchard county of Armagh, whilst Antrim, Down and Londonderry form the country's splendid seaboard.

GUERNSEY

So near—yet so far—yet so different

An island set in a sun-lit sea—that's Guernsey. Although only an hour by air from the West Country, or 90 minutes from the North West of England, Guernsey is one of those faraway places that attracts holiday-makers because it is 'different'. Generously endowed by Nature, Guernsey has the sun, the sea, the sands, invigorating air, magnificent cliff-top walks, secluded bays and rocky seascapes. So different from home is the quaint, Norman-French town of St. Peter Port, magnetic centre of the Channel Islands, with its cobbled streets, friendly shops and restaurants, and quays bobbing with boats to take visitors to the neighbouring islands of Herm and Sark.

If you can come in May or June there are more than financial advantages in an early holiday in Guernsey. Cliff-top walking is particularly enjoyable when the days are long. Golden gorse, bluebells and thrift abound, adding a blaze of colour to the green slopes and the true-blue sea. Hoteliers are ready with a special welcome in the Spring and early summer. Continental wines are inexpensive and all familiar brands of cigarettes and tobacco are astonishingly cheap. Why don't you fly Cambrian to faraway, nearaway Guernsey this summer?

GUERNSEY, CHANNEL ISLANDS.

JERSEY

Jersey is a wonderful place for an off-season holiday—especially in the Spring. The whole island is then carpeted with beautiful and exotic flowers—a paradise of warmth and colour. There's plenty to do and see in Jersey. Skin-dive in clear blue sea, water-ski in sheltered bays. Splendid stretches of water, combined with deep harbours make Jersey ideal for yachtsmen. There are several beaches for surfers, facing the Atlantic, which are daily pounded by the huge rollers necessary for this exhilarating sport. After dark, the gay life goes on—cinemas, theatres, floorshows, floodlights, or a walk in the moonlight.

The highest standards of comfort and service are ensured by the unique hotel grading system—so that you can be sure that you get what you pay for. Jersey has the highest average sunshine rate in the British Isles—this, plus golden sands and warm sea, make this island the perfect place for a holiday. In Jersey, you will find the best of Continental life without the difficulties which are caused by a foreign language and currency.

Your money goes further in Jersey because the little luxuries, that make a holiday, cost less.

IRELAND

If you have never been to Ireland it's difficult to say what will impress you most; the extreme beauty of its coasts and countryside, the relaxed atmosphere or the friendliness of the people. Something else you'll notice is that Ireland combines the best of both worlds—the old and the new. Magnificent roads take you through pastoral settings—past countless historic sites and ruined Abbeys. Ultra modern hotels look across ancient battlefields that have changed little through the centuries. A dieselised rail system whisks you in comfort to enchanting city or timeless village.

Cambrian Airways, in conjunction with Aer Lingus fly from Bristol, London and Cardiff to Cork and also from Cardiff to Dublin. Both of these modern airports are close to all the holiday amenities you could wish for. You'll find no better fishing or golfing anywhere than you'll find in this lake and link dotted land. But before you undo your tackle or drag out your clubs, sample the wonderful Irish food at either of the magnificent airport restaurants or at one of the many fine hotels throughout the country. That's the moment you'll be close to perfect living and you'll give Cambrian Airways a metaphorical pat on the back for bringing you to this friendly island.

PARIS

Paris is Paris; there is no other short way of describing it. It is unique. It is all things to all men, and to all women as well. It is a mass of contradictions, and the most exciting place in the world to be in. You can rub shoulders with millionaires . . . if you have their kind of money to spend, or you can "do" Paris on a comparative shoestring. No city one doesn't know is ever cheap but off the great thoroughfares and fashionable streets you can enjoy Paris at a sensible cost. And what a city it is for every kind of enjoyment. Broad avenues, magnificent vistas, and everywhere pavement cafés from which to see the world go by. Splendid historical buildings, magnificent shops. You can spend a whole week window-shopping and still be finding something new at every step. You can spend a whole month in the world's richest and most exciting museums and still have as much again to see. You can dine for a year at a different restaurant every night and still not complete the list. Whatever your interests—the arts or sport, cinema, theatre, cabaret, or just plain sightseeing—Paris caters for them. The whole world meets in Paris to make it the liveliest, most cosmopolitan, most fascinating city of all to visit once and to go on re-visiting for ever.
