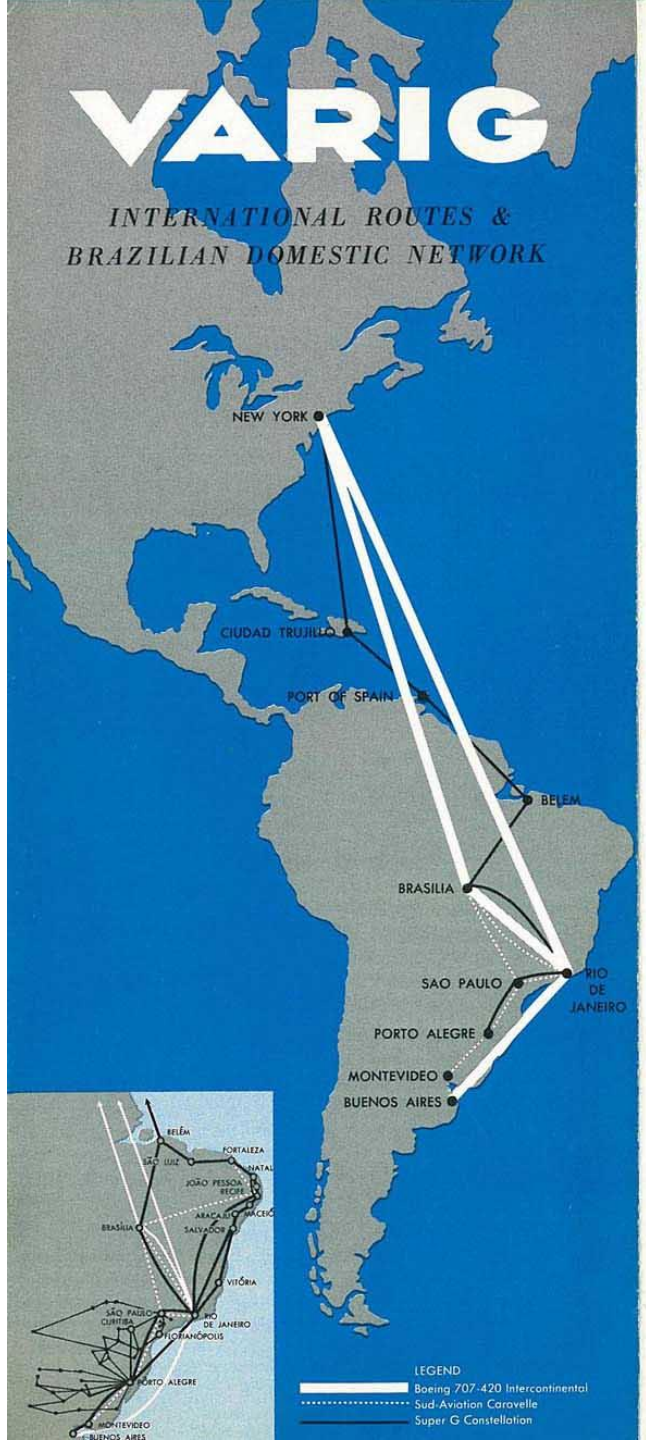
SCHEDULES/FARES/GENERAL INFORMATION

VARIG

INTERNATIONAL ROUTES & BRAZILIAN DOMESTIC NETWORK



GENERAL INFORMATION

EQUIPMENT Boeing 707-420 Intercontinentals or Lockheed Super G Constellations on flights to and from New York, all piloted by U. S. trained and CAA-licensed crews.

BAGGAGE Free baggage allowance is 30 kilos (66 lbs.) for first class, and 20 kilos (44 lbs.) for tourist passengers. Excess weight over free allowance is charged at 1 percent of the first class adult one-way fare per kilo, or 2.2 lbs.

CHILDREN One child under 2 years of age, when accompanied by an adult and not occupying a separate seat, is carried at 10 percent of the adult fare between Miami and the point of origin or destination in South America. Children over 2 and under 12 years, or a child under 2 occupying a separate seat, are charged one-half of the applicable adult fare. Children may travel alone only under certain conditions.

SURCHARGE A surcharge is applied to all jet service.

MEALS All meals in flight are served free, to both first class and tourist passengers.

STOPOVER PRIVILEGES All passengers flying Varig may stop at any city enroute, and on the Varig system, if specified in ticket.

TAXES Any government taxes are in addition to Varig fares.

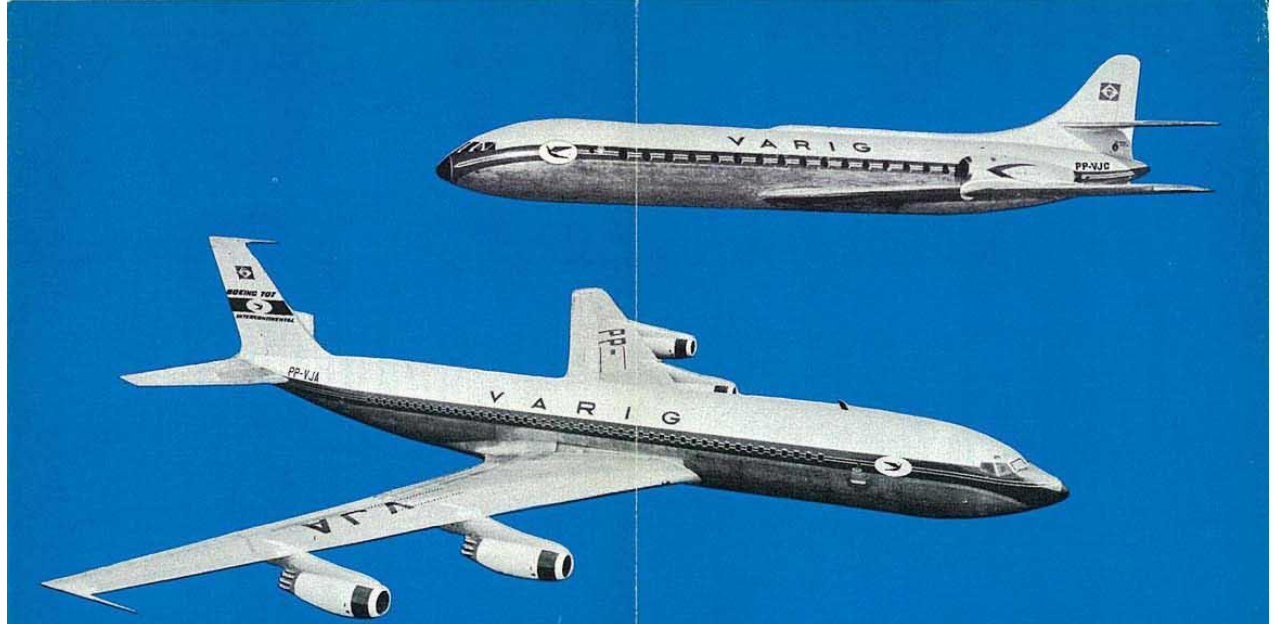
INSURANCE Trip insurance at low rates is available through your travel agent or at any airport.

RESERVATIONS Passengers must reconfirm their reservations at least 72 hours before departure from any stopover city if departure is more than 72 hours after arrival at the stopover point.

DEPARTURES To facilitate on-time departures, passengers are requested to check in at the airport at the time indicated on their ticket envelope.

GROUND TRANSPORTATION Taxicab or limousine service is available between downtown scheduled check-in points and airports. This is not a Varig service and is at passenger's expense.

CONNECTIONS Flight connections via Varig are available to all cities with scheduled service. Your travel agent, or any Varig office, will arrange these connections for you.



VARIG BOEING ROLLS ROYCE 707 INTERCONTINENTAL 420

Luxuriously Linking the Americas

RIO JUST A WINK AWAY . . . HOW TIME FLIES! Varig's fabulous Boeing 707-420 Intercontinental cuts time between New York, Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Aires by more than 50 per cent. Toss away your 24 hour clock. Rio is now just 9¾ NON-STOP hours away. To Buenos Aires, add a mere 150 minutes. And every minute aboard Varig's 707 is velvet smooth, whisper quiet and vibration free. Powered by four 17,500 pound thrust Rolls Royce Jet engines, the most powerful commercial engines built today, the Varig 707 cruises effortlessly at 600 miles per hour . . . and is the longest ranged airliner in the world.

EXTRA SPECIAL SERVICE Varig's unparalleled reputation for personalized service reaches an unbelievable standard of achievement on the Boeing Intercontinental route. The specialized multi-lingual crew anticipates your every desire. Truly, this is the most extraordinary service imaginable.

GOURMET HOLIDAY Our chef de cuisine dares to be different . . . and we encourage him. He has prepared the most exciting variety of taste sensations, exclusively for the palates of the Boeing Intercontinental passengers. P.S. Naturally he permits only the finest wines to be served with such magnificent cuisine.

EXCLUSIVE JET CONNECTIONS IN SOUTH AMERICA Varig offers the only domestic jet connections in South America. On the sleek twin jet Caravelle (exclusive with Varig in South America) you enjoy the famed Varig service and cuisine aboard the world's fastest medium range jet . . . flown by the Airline that transported more passengers between the U. S. and Brazil last year than the combined total of all other carriers.

SUPER CONSTELLATION CRUISES The ultra-comfortable "Super Constellation Cruise" allows you all the time in the world to visit the Caribbean—see Port of Spain, the Dominican Republic—and experience the fun of an adventurous safari to the Amazon via Belem. Then continue on to Rio and points South. Ask your travel agent about this exciting vacation, tailored especially for the budget-minded tourist.
