HELPFUL INFORMATION FOR SOUTH AMERICAN TRAVELERS

RESERVATIONS

TSA reservations can be obtained from your travel agent, instantly by "free sale" or quickly by "Z Circuit," as well as from any TSA office. When making stop-overs, re-confirm your continuing reservations 48 hours preceding your departure.

BAGGAGE

First class tickets entitle you to 66 lbs. (30 kilograms) free baggage allowance, Tourist Class tickets to 44 lbs. (20 kilograms). Children's half-fare tickets entitle same allowance as full fare adults' tickets. Excess baggage is charged for at 1% of adult first class fare per kilogram.

TRAVEL PAPERS

Your travel agent or any TSA office will advise and assist you in obtaining, adequately prior to departure time, the passport, visas, vaccination and/or health certificate, tourist permit, or other documents required by your nationality and the itinerary of your trip.

STOP-OVERS AND TOURS

You can arrange stop-overs at any points served by TSA on your trip, and can visit several "extra" cities at no extra cost. Attractively priced complete tours, including ones around South America, can be arranged by your agent or TSA to suit you.

FLIGHT AND GROUND SERVICE

All in-flight meals are provided without extra charge. All ground transportation to and from airports is separate and at your expense. An overnight flight "kit" bag is available on request, if you do not already have a small bag for toilet articles, etc.

GENERAL

The seasons in North and South America are exact reverses of each other, but the latter's winters are mild. Spanish is the language of all South American countries except Brazil, where it is Portuguese. Currencies differ, and use of travelers cheques is recommended.
