'GENERAL INFORMATION'

RECOMMENDATIONS

To ensure your onward and return reservations, reconfirmation is required at least 72 hours before departure of your flight. Failure to do so may result in the cancellation of your reservation.

See page 1 for phone numbers of reconfirmation offices.

LIABILITY

GAC does not accept any liability for damage supplied by passengers because of delay in the flight or failure to execute all or parts of a flight, nor does GAC accept any liability for errors which, in spite of every precaution, may occur in timetables or published fares. Contents of this timetable are subject to change without notice.

DOCUMENTS

GAC reserves the right to deny carriage to a passenger whose documents are not in order. Although checks are performed by our Personnel, passengers are asked to consult the nearest consulate of the country you propose to visit. Any consequences which may arise due to passengers not being in possession of correct documentation for any country are for the account of the passenger, deportation cost included.

BAGGAGE :

Irregularities with regards to your baggage must be reported immediately on arrival to GAC staff member or representative at the airport.

FREE BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE

On all Domestic GAC services the free baggage allowance is 25 lbs.

On all International GAC services the free baggage allowance is 44 lbs or 20 Kilos.

In addition, when taken with you into the cabin, the following articles are carried free of charge — an overcoat, an umbrella, a small camera, a pair of binocular, a lady's handbag, a reasonable amount of reading materials for the flight, infant's food for the journey.

EXCESS BAGGAGE

On all International flights excess baggage will be charged at the rate of 1% of the first class adult one way fare for each kilo. Rates for the Domestic flights can be obtained from the nearest GAC office.

CHECK IN TIMES

For all International flights check in time is one hour before departure. No responsibility will be accepted for any consequences resulting from passengers checking in late.
