FOR ENGLAND—EGYPT—INDIA SERVICES
SEE SEPARATE TIME TABLE.

All Times are British Summer Time, unless otherwise stated.

SPECIAL NOTE

This Time Table is based on the 24-hour clock, i.e., the terms a.m. and p.m. are not used, and the hours, starting from midnight, are consecutively numbered from 0 to 24 covering the period until midnight on the following day; 10 a.m. thus becomes 10.00 hours, whilst 10 p.m. is written as 22.00 hours, the last two figures in the group indicating minutes past the hour, i.e. 1.15 p.m. is 13.15 hours.

Foreword.

IMPERIAL AIRWAYS is the British National Air Transport Company. It was formed in 1924 by the amalgamation of the four original British pioneer Air Transport Companies. Since that time it has completed nearly 6,000,000 miles flying, carried over 140,000 passengers, and 5,000 tons of cargo.

No other British Air Company operates services between London and the Continent, or uses three and four engined aircraft on the London-Paris route.

The air liners used by IMPERIAL AIRWAYS are entirely British, and are regularly subjected to the tests imposed by the British Air Ministry, tests which set the highest standard of safety in the world. The pilots are picked men with extensive experience in the piloting of large passenger air liners, and they, too, must pass frequent tests for fitness and capability.

The British mid-day service between London and Paris and vice versa has been in regular daily operation for ten years without a single accident. The aircraft used on this service are larger and more luxurious than those on any other air service in the world. Refreshments are served on the 'planes.

The "Silver Wing" de Luxe service will, this Summer, be operated chiefly by aircraft of the famous "Argosy" class, built by Messrs. Armstrong-Whitworth, Ltd. Seating accommodation is provided for 19 passengers, in addition to a Steward and Buffet. Each of these aeroplanes is powered by three Jaguar motors, developing more than 1,200 total horse-power.

To travel IMPERIAL means that your journey will be as trouble-free, swift and fascinating, as modern science can make it.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Applicable to all European Services

CONNECTING CARS.—Transport from the centre of the town to the aerodrome and vice versa is provided by most European Air Companies without extra charge. All Imperial Airways fares include this transport.

PASSPORTS.—Passengers are reminded that the necessary passports should be carried on the person. The Company or its agents will be pleased to obtain passports or visas on request, if given reasonable notice.

RESERVATIONS.—Seats should be booked in advance, and any agent can reserve a seat on request. The cost of any necessary telegrams in connection with reservations will be charged to the passenger. LUGGAGE.—15 kilos. of luggage is carried free for each passenger. Excess luggage can accompany passengers at the rates shown, and other HEAVY BAGGAGE CAN BE SENT IN ADVANCE AT CHEAP RATES. The Company will be pleased to undertake this service for its passengers.

INSURANCE.—Most Life Policies hold good for air travel without extra charge; coupons are available at the rate of 6s. per £500 for 24 hours, all risks, midnight to midnight, maximum cover at sight £2,000. Luggage may also be insured at low rates. Further particulars on application.

ALTERATIONS.—This time table cancels all previous issues, and is subject to alteration without notice. The information given regarding other companies' services is believed to be accurate, but Imperial Airways is not able to guarantee the accuracy of the time schedules or the fares, which are liable to fluctuate with the relative rates of exchange.

AIR CONNECTIONS.—Although every endeavour is made to maintain time schedules, the Company is not in a position to guarantee air connections with other companies' aeroplanes.

CHILDREN IN ARMS are carried free. Children up to seven years of age—half-fare.

CONDITIONS.—The full conditions under which Imperial Airways undertake to carry passengers will be found on every air ticket cover.

As the loading of aircraft is completed not less than five minutes before the scheduled hour of departure, no guarantee is given that passengers will be carried who arrive at the aerodrome of departure after that time.
