PASSENGER INFORMATION:

Reservations

To ensure your passage on the desired date, outward and return, seats should be booked well in advance either with your EL AL Travel Agent or at the EL AL booking offices at the addresses on the General Information page.

When booking, please advise your contact address and/or telephone number up to the time of departure.

Return and onward reservations must be reconfirmed with the company's offices at least 72 hours before departure. Failure to do so will result in passengers' reservations being cancelled if seats are needed for other passengers.

Cancellations

If you have to cancel or defer your reservations please let us know as soon as possible but at least 72 hours prior to the scheduled departure time. If cancellation is made before the deadline, refund will be made, less any expenses incurred. If cancellation is made after the deadline, a cancellation fee of up to 25% of the applicable one way fare may be charged in accordance with the Airline regulations.

Departure

All EL AL flights arrive at and depart from London Heathrow Airport, Terminal 3. Passengers are required to assemble at the EL AL Ticket Desk, Terminal 3, at least 2 hours before departure. The time allocated for checking-in is essential for the completion of all formalities. Planes cannot be delayed for late arrivals and it is the responsibility of the passenger to report at the times indicated.

Children and Infants

An Infant under two accompanied by an adult and not occupying a separate seat is charged 10% of the adult fare. Additional infants under two accompanying the same adult or an infant under two occupying a separate seat and all children between the ages of two and twelve are charged half the adult fare. Age is taken at the beginning of the outward journey. Any requirements should be advised at the time of booking.

Meals and Refreshments

On EL AL flights, the air fare includes all meals and refreshments served en route.

Free Baggage Allowances

Free baggage allowances on EL AL for an adult or a child paying half the adult fare are: First Class 30 kilos (66 lbs), Economy Class 20 kilos (44 lbs). Passengers travelling partly by one class and partly by another class are given the free baggage allowance applicable to the class of travel used. Infants travelling at a 10% fare have no free baggage allowance. However, a portable cradle and infants' food for consumption en route may be carried without charge.

In addition to the free baggage allowance, passengers may take with them without charge the following articles: a lady's handbag, an overcoat or wrap, an umbrella or walking stick, a small camera, a pair of binoculars and a reasonable amount of reading matter for the flight. Other reading matter, overnight bags, typewriters, brief cases, attache cases and parcels are weighed as part of your free allowance.

Ticket Regulations

Your ticket is issued subject to International Regulations and to the "General Conditions of Carriage of Passengers and Baggage" of the International Air Transport Association, the Conditions of Carriage mentioned on the air ticket and specific regulations of EL AL ISRAEL AIRLINES.

Passports, Visas and Health Regulations

You will need a valid passport for travel abroad. Visas and Health Regulations vary from country to country. Details are available from your EL AL Travel Agent or from EL AL Reservations in London or Manchester.

Schedules

While every effort is made to ensure the punctuality of our services, EL AL cannot accept responsibility for the delay or suspension of a service nor guarantee that connections will be made with other air services or surface carriers.
