

On the Route of the Northliners
THE FOX RIVER CITIES
 — Business hub of N-E Wisconsin

Here, within a radius of eight miles, you'll find seven thriving communities — Neenah, Menasha, Appleton, Kimberly, Little Chute, Combined Locks and Kaukauna. In addition to many large paper companies, over 140 different types of firms in this area turn out vast quantities of fine cheese, candies, knitted goods, paints, automotive products, locks, wire and iron. These industries support a population of more than 150,000.

These seven communities comprise Wisconsin's fourth largest market for merchandise. In 1954, retail sales totalled more than $100,000,000.

Throughout the years, educational and cultural interests have flourished in the Fox River Valley. Lawrence College and its affiliates — the Institute of Paper Chemistry and the Conservatory of Music — are the primary centers of these activities.

For an enjoyable look at an extremely interesting area, visit the Fox River Cities. You'll be welcome at any time of the year.
