AIR FREIGHT TRANSPORT - THE ARTERY OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

CZECHOSLOVAK AIRLINES' air freight transport has become a most valuable cooperator of industry and export trade. Smaller goods consignments are sent by regular passenger planes, larger ones are transported by airliners particularly fitted for this purpose.

The advantages which this excellent service offers are: Speed, especially important for the transport of flowers, fruit and similar goods underlying spoil. SPEED nowadays means everything and besides, goods do not suffer by jolting or reloading. Packing and overhead expenditure are reduced to a minimum. Insurance is cheaper.

Consignments of up to 50 kilos, 100×50×50 cm in volume are being accepted for transport on all regular airlines. By agreement, heavier and more voluminous freights may be carried according to loading space available. By airfreighter, 2800 kilos of load at a time can be forwarded to all European, North African and Asia Minor airports.
