Excess Baggage

Baggage in excess of the free allowance will be charged for at the published rate and accepted subject to space availability.

Unaccompanied Baggage is charged for at 50% of the standard freight rate provided it is not less than 10 kilos. Full details can be given on application.

Cancellations

Passengers who do not travel on the service for which they hold a reservation and who have not cancelled in advance, are liable to payment of a "No-Show" charge. Refund of fare for reservations cancelled or transferred at short notice cannot be guaranteed.

Children

Children who have reached their second but not their 12th birthday travel at 50% of the adult fare. One infant under 2 years of age accompanying an adult passenger is carried at 10% of the published fare provided he does not occupy a seat. A second infant under 2 who occupies a seat will be charged 50%.

Departures

Passengers must attend sufficiently early either at the Airport or the Town Terminal (by previous arrangement only) to allow embarkation formalities to be completed. Flights cannot be delayed for passengers arriving late and Sudan Airways cannot accept responsibility in such cases.

Health Certificates

Certain countries require valid certificates of inoculation and/or vaccination. Passengers are advised to enquire well in advance whether any such certificates are required.

Punctuality

While every effort is made to ensure the punctuality of the services, Sudan Airways cannot accept responsibility for the delay or suspension of a service, nor guarantee that connections will be made with other air services or surface carriers.

Stopovers

With the exception of Atbara, free break of journey at intermediate stations is allowed provided notice is given in advance. Hotel expenses at stopover places are the passengers responsibility.

Student fares : are available for schoolchildren and students between the age of 12 & 26 years on international services only. Details on application.
